

Walking—Discover Hyndburn

Amble Not Ramble around places of interest at a leisurely pace to discover Hyndburn with time to chat and relax.

Walks will be mainly on tracks, paths and canal tow paths.

Suitable for all including those who cannot walk very far or too fast and more active walkers who generally walk far and fast but want time to enjoy a relaxing walk to enjoy trees, flowers, water, birds, panoramas and take photographs.

Qualified walk leader from PROSPECTS

Take in Points of Interest

Gentle exercise

Stop and rest points

Make friends and be part of a friendly group

Time to enjoy a chat and a cuppa at the end (paid for by walkers)

Future walks can be suggested by participants

Circular & linear walk routes in a small geographical area

Foxhill Bank, Woodnook, Peel Park, Priestley Clough, The Coppice, Altham, Baby Millennium Woodland, Jackhouse Nature Reserve, Bullough Park etc.

Baxenden, Church, Oswaldtwistle, Accrington, Rishton, Clayton-le-Moors, Great Harwood

Bespoke walks organised for small groups of six, community groups, societies, organisations, clubs, faith groups and informal groups of friends and others such as child-minders and carers who want to learn more about Hyndburn and discover new places to enjoy fresh air and being outdoors with nature

For more information contact: Barbara Sharples, Activity Organiser,

The PROSPECTS Foundation, Tel 01254-230348

or drop in for a chat at the

PROSPECTS Environment Centre, Broadway, Accrington BB5 1EW

Email barbara.sharples@prospectsfoundation.org.uk

